

BRASS TACKS

QUINTESSENTIAL CALIFORNIA WINES

Let's get down to brass tacks, shall we? This is the phrase that echoed Daniel LeFrancois's desire to craft wines that are true expressions of California's wine growing regions and varieties.

Daniel sources fruit from premier regions throughout California, each selected to add specific nuances to the final wine. Through traditional, minimalistic winemaking practices, Daniel creates wines that are reflective of classic varietal characteristics and California terroir, resulting in approachable wines that are flavorful, harmonious, and food-friendly.

brass tacks (noun): the most fundamental considerations; essentials; (usually used in the phrase "get down to brass tacks").

CABERNET SAUVIGNON, 2021

A deep, garnet color in the glass. Alluring aromas of dark red fruit greet the nose. On the palate, rich layers of currant and cherry fruit are framed by nicely integrated oak and soft, round tannins.

Opens with citrus fruit, followed by fig and hints of honeysuckle. On the palate, fresh tropical flavors of papaya and mango. Minimal malolactic fermentation helped develop the luscious, round mouth feel while maintaining balanced acidity.
